

The Healing Angels of the Energy Field - Amulets

Ariel: Over her heart, Ariel bears a rainbow of colors, filled with light, and beaming from her heart to yours. The rays of white light represent divine radiance that gives rise to divine illumination within us.

Raphael: Over his heart, Raphael bears a full-blown lotus – a symbol of union with The Source – All That Is. The petals of the lotus represent the various Centers of Power in the human brain which, when matured and integrated, give full consciousness of All That Is.

Gabriel: Over his heart, he bears the Lightning Flash of Illumination – which opens our own spiritual eyes to the vision of All That Is.

Celstina: At her throat, Celestina bears four interlacing triangles with the ruby light of pure life energy at its heart. These four triangles are the basis for the ancient Tree of Life – symbol of the Universe and upon which all Life is created into various dimensions.

Faith: Over her heart, Faith bears a starburst of eight crystals – symbol of the energy of Divine Love making our spiritual vision a blessed and holy manifestation into matter. Crystals contain the highest consciousness of the mineral kingdom.

Cassiel: Over her heart, Cassiel bears a Peace Rose – white tinged with pink – Perfect Divine Love manifested into our physical lives. Also on the circle are placed four crystals – to amplify the Love and Healing she offers to us.

Daniel: The perfect healing of Divine Love is represented by the white dove of The Holy Spirit resting over Daniel's heart.

Sarah: The circled rays of Light issuing from the square frame over her heart symbolize the ancient alchemical process of "Squaring the Circle" – bring Spirit into Matter, thus making matter sacred.

Michael: At his throat, Michael bears the symbol of his Sword of the Blue Flame. It is pointed upward, ready for use in service to God and Man. The intensity of the flame cuts through all obstacles, which keep us in the bondage of fear and separate from our own Divinity and union with The All. He wears a shirt of golden chain mail as his battle armor.
