IET Relationship Session

by Stevan J. Thayer

I have found that IET provides wonderful support for clients who want to focus on healing issues that they are having in their relationships.

A very powerful form of relationships sessions involves having both partners in the relationship be present during the session. One of the partners receives the IET session while the other partner is present in the room energetically supporting them. The simple fact that both partners are in the same room will automatically trigger issues in the relationship and will create a very effective healing environment.

From a Master Instructor in NY.

I went to Kripalu a few years ago for a weekend yoga retreat, and while I was there I had an IET session - knowing nothing about it and having never really given my angels much thought (sorry to say). It was such an amazing, life-changing experience. I felt calmer than I think I have ever felt in my entire life and I heard a message in my head repeated twice about a family member. It brought me such comfort. I left there a different person and came home determined to learn everything I could about IET and my angels.

But there is even more to my story. I have Hashimotos Thyroiditis which is an autoimmune disease that causes nodules to form in your thyroid and your thyroid hormone can get depleted. I had been taking a synthetic thyroid hormone (notice I said "had") for over 12 years.

But then along came IET and my angels and it all changed. After each IET session, class, meditation and self IET session, I noticed a burning sensation in my thyroid area. It was very noticeable but not painful

- it felt like it was healing. I knew in my heart that Celestina was helping me to heal. It is now 2 years since I stopped taking the synthetic hormone, and I am fine. It is obvious the angels helped to heal me. Well obvious to all except my endocrinologist!!
